It is with great pleasure that St Martin's Players can again perform in our church. It is hard to believe that 10 years have passed since we presented The Roses of Eyam as part of the celebrations for the diamond anniversary. We are delighted to celebrate 70 years of St Martin's and bring a familiar Old Testament character to life in a musical allegory, Noah's Animals, for what we think is its British premiere. We hope you will enjoy our contribution.

Noah's Animals was written by John Patrick Goggen, an American playwright of limited theatrical success but renowned as the screenwriter of Three Coins in the Fountain, High Society, The Teahouse of the August Moon, Love is a Many-Splendoured Thing and The World of Suzie Wong.

St Martin's Players meet on Fridays at 8pm in the Huxtable Hall. Our next production will be our annual pantomime, reading and casting on 27th Oct and 3rd Nov for The Three Musketeers - Le Panteau! for production 26/27 Jan and 2/3 Feb. If you would like to take part or assist backstage we would be delighted to see you.
