If, as yet, you have not visited the group's website, may I recommend a glance when next you 'surf the net'.

News of forthcoming productions, cast lists and photographs of our recent shows are to be found. The growing Archive section contains information about our earlier productions; Backstage reveals some hidden secrets of 'how we did that', there is a 'behind-the-scenes' look at sets and lighting, and a view of our gallery of backdrops.

You can also book tickets in advance, online, for a minimal fee.
